

State of Alaska FY2006 Governor's Operating Budget

Department of Law Office of the Attorney General Component Budget Summary

Component: Office of the Attorney General*Contribution to Department's Mission

Article III, section 25, of the Alaska Constitution provides that the governor appoints the head of each principal department, including the attorney general, subject to confirmation by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session, and that the head of each principal department serves at the pleasure of the governor.

AS 44.23.010 names the attorney general as the principal executive officer of the Department of Law. In this role, he provides leadership and policy direction to the department in its comportsment of its mission to provide legal services to state government and to prosecute crime.

AS 44.23.020 states that the "attorney general is the legal advisor of the governor and other state officers."

Core Services

The Attorney General is the principal executive officer of the Alaska Department of Law. In this role he is responsible for both the legal and the administrative aspects of the department's operations. This component supports the Attorney General and his immediate staff as he carries out his statutorily defined functions.

The Attorney General serves as legal advisor for the governor and other state officers. In addition, the Attorney General is responsible for representing the state in all civil actions to which it is a party; prosecuting all cases involving violation of state law; administering state legal services, including furnishing written legal opinions and giving advice on laws or proposed legislation; drafting legal instruments for the state; and bringing, prosecuting, and defending all necessary actions in the name of the state for the collection of revenue. The Attorney General serves as a trustee on both the Permanent Fund Board and the Exxon Valdez Trustee Council. He is a member of the National Association of Attorneys General and serves on their executive committee, as on of their representatives to the Council on State Governments, and acts as their Supreme Court Liaison. He is also a member of the Conference of Western Attorneys General. He is co-chair of the Rural Justice Commission of Alaska along with the U.S. Attorney. He is chair of the Alaska-Alberta Bilateral Council and is a member of the Stranded Gas Act Negotiating team.

Core Services include:

Protect the interests of Alaska citizens and the resources of the state by ensuring that effective, high-quality legal services are provided to state agencies and officers.

Prosecute those who violate state laws.

Assist law enforcement agencies with criminal investigations by providing legal and tactical advice.

Enhance oversight of the department's Indian Law work.

Enhance oversight of the department's oil and gas work.

Reduce fraud in benefit programs.

Represent and defend the state in legal actions.

Implement the Executive Branch Ethics Act.

Manage the department's resources effectively and efficiently to provide support for the work of the department's employees.

Participate actively in interdepartmental efforts to improve government services to Alaskans.
