Project Description:

The Fairbanks Downtown Association is currently developing a comprehensive plan for traffic flow, upgrades, and revitalization of the core downtown area of Fairbanks. Following is a summary of their mission, organization, and focus.

Our Mission

To encourage and foster economic growth that will result in a downtown that is a vital, energetic and attractive center of the community.

Our Organization

The Downtown Association of Fairbanks was formed in 1979 as a non-profit organization with membership. Our members include individuals, corporations, businesses and property owners throughout Alaska who share the common goal of creating a vital and vibrant Downtown Fairbanks.

Our Focus

To promote, preserve and revitalize Downtown Fairbanks. In 2007, the Downtown Association is committed to continuing our mission through the development of a comprehensive, achievable plan for the revitalization and future growth of Downtown Fairbanks.
