Project Description:

The Alaska Native Brotherhood Hall in Haines is a long-standing organization of great importance to the community. Since its construction, the ANB Hall has become the most popular gathering place in Haines. However, the years have taken its toll on the hall and immediate repairs are needed before a more thorough renovation can begin. Structure decay is destroying the strength of the wooden studs to resist wind and gravity loads. Making repairs now will prevent further decay and will restabilize the entire building.
