Brief Summary and Statement of Need:

This project will complete the design for improvements to the stormwater drainage system for the terminal area apron. Once construction is complete, the conversion of the open ditch drainage, which serves the apron area south of the terminal, will be converted to a subsurface system. Work will also relocate the primary trunk line for this portion of the airport drainage system from beneath the Alaska Airlines cargo facility. To enhance stormwater discharge water quality, the remainder the terminal apron snow storage area will be paved and oil/grit separators installed to treat water discharge to the stormwater drainage system.
