Project Description/Justification:

DOT&PF Civil Rights Office

- Ensure departmental and sub-recipient compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 by conducting reviews of department agencies, sub-recipients and complaints on a timely basis. This is for Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and Federal Transit Administration (FTA) assisted projects.
- Guarantee FHWA contractor compliance reviews covering External Equal Employment Opportunity (ExEEO), Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBE) participation, and on the job training efforts on an annual basis, pursuant to federal regulation 23 CFR 230.
- Ensure departmental compliance with accessibility requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Alaska Administrative Order 129 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 by reviewing of department facilities, employee accommodation requests and complaints on a timely basis.
- Administer Statewide certification of DBEs for highway, airport and mass transit contract opportunities under the authority of the US Department of Transportation approved Alaska Unified Certification Program. Standards for certification are found in 49 CFR 26.
- Guarantee departmental compliance with FHWA regulations that require On the Job Training (OJT). Standards for determining and trainees for a project covered under 23 CFR 230.111.
- Provide Support Services for the DBE and OJT programs. Promote increased participation of minority business enterprises in Federal-aid highway contracts, as well as entry level employment opportunities for minorities and women, in part through the development and implementation of cost effective supportive services programs under the provisions of 23 CFR 230.
