 Prior to FY08, this was included in the Capital Budget request for the Governor's Office.

Project Description/Justification:

Aside from the legal requirements, removal of physical barriers will negate the need for temporary program modifications which are currently required of the facilities' occupants. The requested FY12 funds will allow the Department of Transportation and Public Facilities to continue work from the statewide priority compliance project list.

Projects could include ramps for building access, restroom upgrades, automatic doors, etc.
